

2008 Fortune Lake Festival Sponsors & Donors

We are pleased to announce the 5th Annual Fortune Lake Festival - a springtime folk music festival in Michigan's Upper Peninsula to be held on Saturday, May 10, 2008. We are presenting marvelous folk music and plan a full day and evening of fun that includes Morning Music Classes, Dance Sessions, Jamming, and an Evening Concert. Jeff Clark (of Fortune Lake Lutheran Camp) and Dean & Bette Premo (of White Water) are planning the event.

Thanks to the help of our sponsors and donors, combined with the dedication of festival volunteers, the 1st-4th Annual Fortune Lake Festivals were a success. The 2008 festival will build on this success and draw from the strong reputation of the long-running Second Sunday Folk Dance series. A large mailing list along with frequent press coverage will promote the 2008 Festival to a large audience. We are dedicated to making this folk music event high quality, family-oriented, and affordable. We solicited comments and critique from past festival-goers and received both praise and practical suggestions - we will incorporate the latter into this year's festival. We seek festival sponsors and donors in categories described below. Donations are tax-deductible and sponsors and donors receive additional benefits.

Festival Sponsors

We have two categories of festival sponsors: Workshop Sponsors and Concert Sponsors. Sponsor benefits include: (1) name highlighted in festival program, (2) master of ceremonies will acknowledge sponsors by name at beginning and end of each sponsored event, (3) name listed on poster at festival registration area, (4) name listed in printed and radio press releases, and (5) one ticket to evening concert.
